

Legislative Session to Run 2 Weeks

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The special fiscal session of the state legislature scheduled to open next Thursday may cost $53,000 and last between one and two weeks.

The House Efficiency Committee met Wednesday and estimated the expenses of the lower chamber at about $39,000. While the Senate committee won't meet officially until the day before the session starts, members said unofficially the expenses of the upper chamber probably would run around $14,000.

Members of the House committee estimated the session would last about a week but their Senate counterparts thought two weeks would be more likely.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus said Wednesday the legislature would be called into session next Thursday instead of the previously announced Monday starting date.

More time is needed to prepare for the session, Faubus said, and explained that the moneybills had to be written so as not to unbalance the state's existing fiscal set up.

"The big difficulty is that we don't want to write a law that can't be successfully attacked in court or one that upsets the fiscal balance," Faubus said.

Primary purpose of the session will be to provide funds for construction at state institutions to replace money which would have been provided in the invalidated omnibus act and a defeated $60 million construction bond program. Faubus refused to say what other items would be included in his call for the special session. But he did say congressional redistricting would not be included.

That problem should be taken up at a special session called for that purpose alone, if necessary, he said.

Gold Medal for Most Heroic Dog

CHICAGO (AP)—Duke, 5, a collie, today sports a gold medal on his gold collar, symbolic of his selection as the most heroic dog of 1961.

The dog was selected from 5 canine candidates from 29 states for having helped save the life of his mistress, Penny Grant, 10, March 15 by ripping a flaming skirt from the child.

Duke suffered severe burns on the mouth in the act. Penny, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Grant, Niles, Ohio, was treated for eight weeks for burns over 50 per cent of her body.

Physicians say the dog "almost certainly" saved the little girl's life.

In addition to his medal and collar, Duke was awarded a gold-plated leash, a dog blanket, a year's supply of dog food, and a $1,000 U.S. bond in his owner's name.

Ceremonies befitting Duke's heroism marked the award presentation Wednesday.

Senior Football Players Called

Couch Pierce said today he wants all senior high football players to come out to the school Saturday morning between 7 and 9 o'clock to check out their equipment. Regular football practice will be from 9 to 11 a.m.

Load of Big Melons Brought in

Berlin Mayor Would Grab Red Railroad

By JOHN FIEHN

BERLIN (AP)—Mayor Willy Brandt today sought Western approval to seize Communist-run elevated railway lines in West Berlin despite another Red threat to blockade the city in retaliation. The fiery mayor was to press his plan for "action more than words" at a meeting with the Western Big Three commandants, who must approve any take-over since Berlin is still an occupied city.

Brandt told 200,000 West Berliners at a rally Wednesday to demand Allied action against the Communist closure of the Berlin border that the Allied commandants were giving favorable consideration to the rail seizure. The East German regime controls and nets a neat profit from the elevated lines that run through both West and East Berlin.

Brandt declared it was intolerable for West Berliners that their train fares were going to buy barbed wire to fence in East Berliners.

The official East German radio brushed off Brandt's call for a boycott of East German cultural and trade events, including the big Leipzig Fair, but rose to his threat to seize the rail lines.

"Let Brandt take over the railroads," they warned. "He'll be surprised at what will happen."

The East German news agency ADN said Western seizure of the railway property "would lead only to blockading West Berlin," as the Communists did in 1948-49. West Berlin—isolated 110 miles inside Communist territory—was kept alive then only through an Allied airlift.

The Reds made the same threat Tuesday in answer to proposals that Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government suspend trade between West and East Germany, totaling some $500 million yearly, in retaliation for the ban on East German travel into West Berlin.

The United States, Britain and France quickly made clear that they do not contemplate drastic counteraction at present and Adenauer, after speaking in favor of a break in all East-West trade, retreated Wednesday.

Adenauer said he does not think the present Berlin crisis will lead to war and that the real crisis will come only when Soviet Premier Khrushchev signs a separate peace treaty with East Germany and tries to end the Allied occupation of West Berlin.

Local Men View Fireball in Sky

A falling "ball of fire" reported in the state press this morning as having been seen Wednesday night by residents of Crossett, Arkansas and Monroe, La., also was reported as viewed by two Hope men D. B. Phillips and E. R. Crank, both of W. Fourth St., said they saw the object at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Authorities said no airplanes were missing in the southwestern area.

AUBREY GOODWIN OF ROSSTON RT. 3, NEAR WILLISVILLE, brought this double load of watermelons by The Star office for a picture late Wednesday afternoon. THERE WERE 17 MELONS IN THE PICKUP TRUCK AND THE trailer (showing at bottom edge of photograph.) The round melons are Cobb Gems, averaging around 100 pounds apiece; and the long melons are White Seeded Watsons.

TEN OF THE MELONS ARE SOLD TO BERRY ASPHALT Co., and five to Kern Drilling Co., both of Magnolia. Another pair go to C. L. Perkins, son of P. L. Perkins—one to Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, the other to young Mr. Perkins at New Orleans.

LARGEST MELON IN THE LOAD WAS UP IN THE pickup cab out of camera range—a White Seeded Watson that weighed 115½ pounds.

Washington School to Open Sept. 1

The Washington Elementary School will open Friday, Sept. 1, for all children. There will be an assembly program at 9 a.m. to which all parents and patrons are invited.

School will be on half-day schedule Monday and Tuesday on Sept. 4 and 5. The luncheon will open Wednesday, Sept. 6 to serve lunches with milk to students for 15 cents each.

Teachers will start attending meeting and work on Aug. 29.

The high school students will stay for the sixth period at Hope High School this year, according to Supt. Thurston Hulsey.

J. G. German Heads Mop Mechanical

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The Missouri Pacific Railroad has announced the appointment of John G. German as chief mechanical officer with headquarters in St. Louis, effective September 1. Formerly superintendent of motive power for the Great Northern Railroad at St. Paul, Minn., he succeeds L. Ray Christy who retired recently after 51½ years railroad service.

The son of a railroadman, his father being a retired Great Northern roundhouse foreman now living in Seattle, Wash., Mr. German is a graduate of Case Institute of Technology in Cleveland, O., with a B.S. degree in mechanical engineering.

He started his railroad career in 1913 as assistant to the master mechanic for the Great Northern at Spokane, Wash. He later served as traveling engineer and then master mechanic at various locations on the Great Northern before being appointed assistant to the mechanical officer, with headquarters at St. Paul, in 1953. Later that same year he was named superintendent of motive power.

Earl Upchurch, 64, Dies Today

Earl Upchurch, 64, died suddenly at his home here early this morning. He is survived by his wife Rhoda; two sons, Edward of Arkadelphia, and Virgil of U. S. Army, Japan; and two grandchildren. Funeral services are incomplete and will be announced later by Herndon-Cornelius.

Kathleen C. Delony Dies; Rites Friday

Mrs. Kathleen Collier Delony, 43, died Wednesday in a local hospital.

She was a member of the Walnut Street Church of Christ. She is survived by a daughter, Brenda Kay Delony; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Collier Sr.; two brothers, J. A. Collier Jr., and Harrell H. Collier, all of Hope; and three sisters, Mrs. Gladys Stone of Navasota, Texas; Mrs. Paul Erwin of Little Rock and Mrs. Patsy Rhodes of Hope.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Friday at the Walnut Street Church of Christ, Rev. O. J. Sweeney officiating, assisted by Glen Browning and M. H. Peebles. Burial will be in Rose Hill cemetery with Herndon-Cornelius in charge.

Active pallbearers: A. G. Fuller, Lindell Fuller, Duffie Day Booth, Earl Booth, Fred Henry, and Tommie Collier Jr.

Literacy Drive Pushed by Castro

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro today mobilized 30,000 workers to teach teachers and students in his anti-illiteracy campaign in Cuba. The workers will go into Cuba's countryside, teaching peasants and farmers to read and write.

Castro has set a goal of eradicating illiteracy by the end of 1961.

Castro spoke at a meeting of the Cuban Confederation of Workers, which has taken part in the campaign. The televised speech was monitored here.

Methodist Melon Feast Friday

The Hope Methodist Church will have a family singing and watermelon feast at the Band Stand of Fair Park this Friday night at 7:30. All members of the church and their families and guests are urged to be in attendance.

This is the result of the recent Sunday School contest, which the Red side, with Elmer Brown as captain, lost. They have planned and arranged the entertainment and are furnishing the watermelons. In case of bad weather the meeting will be in the coliseum.

Texas Tax Perplexes Texarkana

By WICK TEMPLE

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—For years this border town has boasted its role as the only split city in the United States. It's half in Texas, half in Arkansas.

Now it faces a unique tax pinch that makes some residents wish they'd never heard of State Line Ave.

The complications arose over sales tax. Arkansas has had a general sales tax for years but since Texarkana, Ark. merchants would have suffered an unbearable competitive handicap, an exemption was written saying the city did not have to collect the tax until taxless Texas approved a general sales tax.

Monday night, the Texas Legislature did just that.

But instead of a 3 per cent sales tax on everything, as Arkansas has, Texas will have a 2 per cent sales tax with groceries, drugs and some other items exempt.

It gets into effect Sept. 1. Does this mean Texarkana, Ark., will go under a 3 per cent sales tax, with no exemptions, like the rest of Arkansas?

Or will it pay 2 per cent, with exemptions, as in Texas?

Arkansas—side merchants are having bad dreams about customers streaming across State Line Ave. to buy most items for less tax and some—like groceries—for no tax.

The ironic part is that such a situation has existed for some time in Texarkana, Ark., in regard to surrounding towns. Shoppers come from as far as Ashdown, Ark., 20 miles north, and Hope, Ark., 30 miles northeast.

Some merchants admit that lack of a sales tax has been an incentive. Others say Texarkana merely has a wider selection than the smaller towns.

Texarkana, Ark., did $43 million in retail sales last year, said Miller County, Ark., Rep. Hayes McClerkin. That would be $1.29 million in sales tax at 3 per cent, or about $750,000 at 2 per cent.

McClerkin and state Sen. John O. Moore of Texarkana, Ark., are the would-be heroes of this little drama.

They are trying to get the same sales tax situation set up in Texarkana, Ark., as on the Texas side. Wednesday, they went to Little Rock and conferred with Gov. Orval E. Faubus, members of the state Revenue Department and the attorney general's office.

Von Braun to Speak at Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Rocket expert Werner von Braun and atomic scientist Dr. Edward Teller will be among speakers at a two-day seminar here Aug. 30-31.

The session, known officially as the "Southwest Seminar on Management and Uses of Nuclear Energy," will deal with peaceful uses of nuclear power in industry, medicine, agriculture and other fields.

Teller, known as "the father of the hydrogen bomb," now is a professor at the University of California. Von Braun, developer of Germany's World War II "buzz bombs," now heads the Huntsville, Ala., Space Flight Center.

Along with overlapping the seminar will be an exhibit of space age products at Oaklawn Park from Aug. 26 to Sept. 4.

Some of the products displayed will have something more of a military tinge than the seminar discussions.

There will be, for example, models of the Polaris missile and the United States' nuclear submarine besides replicas of the space capsules used by this country's two astronauts.

A spokesman said the two-day seminar was designed primarily to focus attention on the possibilities of nuclear energy in peacetime pursuits in the five participating states—Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Oklahoma and Texas.

He credited William P. Rock, executive director of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission and chairman of the Arkansas Nuclear Energy Committee, with being the guiding spirit in arranging for the affairs.

Dr. Leland J. Haworth, a member of the Atomic Energy Commission, also will speak. Winthrop Rockefeller will be the seminar chairman.

Ask Congress to Reopen Walker Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress was asked Wednesday to investigate the case of Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, who was reprimanded by the Army for publicly making derogatory statements about several prominent Americans.

Rep. Samuel L. Devine, R-Ohio, introduced a resolution asking that a joint House-Senate committee be named to conduct the investigation.

Devine said he introduced the measure after Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, refused his request to conduct an investigation.

The Army's action against Walker was taken last June. The Overseas Weekly, a privately-owned publication, had quoted the general as telling a PTA meeting in Germany that former President Harry Truman, former Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Eleanor Roosevelt were "pinks."

The Army said its investigation established Walker had not made such a statement, but had implied the three were "leftist-influenced."

Walker was commander of the 24th Infantry Division in Germany at the time. He is now attached to Army Headquarters in Europe.

Walker commanded the Arkansas Military District during the 1957 Little Rock integration dispute.

Fulbright Wouldn't Buy Soviet Oil

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., today urged economic reprisals against the Russians and East Germany for the Communist crackdown on the flow of refugees from East Germany.

Fulbright, who heads the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he has urged Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other administration officials to seek agreement with U.S. allies for concerted action in this field.

It is his understanding, Fulbright said, that although Allied representatives had agreed that countermeasures would be taken, there has been no decision on a specific course to follow.

A cutoff of West German purchases of oil from the Soviet Union was cited by the Arkansas senator as one action that might have telling effect.

"The Russians have spent a lot of money in building pipelines through East Germany," he said. "If the West Germans said to them 'We won't buy your oil anymore,' I think we might see some more willingness to negotiate over Berlin than is apparent now."

Justice Holt May Retire, He Is 76

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Associate Justice J. Seaborn Holt said today he was retiring, effective Sept. 4, after 23 years on the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Holt, who is 76 and the court's senior member in point of service, said he told Gov. Orval E. Faubus of his intention Wednesday.

Faubus will appoint a successor, who will serve through next year.

The position will be up for election next year and the man chosen then will serve the final two years of the eight-year term to which Holt was elected in 1958.

The appointed justice will not be eligible to run.

Holt picked as his retirement date the day the Supreme Court reconvenes after its summer recess.

Holt said he was in good health but "just a little bit tired." He said he wanted to rest and travel.

He said he had not missed a day of court during his 23 years on the bench.

Holt, who will be 77 in November, first was elected to the court in 1938.

As a retired justice, he will draw half his present salary of $15,000 a year.

Holt is etc. next to last grad.

Council Will Review Audits

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Audits of the state Welfare Department and nine other agencies will be reviewed Friday by the Legislative Joint Audit Committee. Other audits to be reviewed include the state Game and Fish Commission, state Labor Department, Vocational Training School, Boys' Industrial School, state Tuberculosis Sanatorium, Arkansas Real Estate Commission, state Cosmology Board, Miscellaneous Tax Division stamp revenues from cigarette stamp taxes and permits and circuit and chancery courts and prosecuting attorneys.

Bartender Held for Shooting

BUREKA SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—John Darity, 31, a bartender, remained in jail here today on a charge of assault with intent to kill in the wounding of John B. Clayton, a federal Agriculture Department auditor.

The 40-year-old Clayton was reported in good condition at a hospital here where he was taken following the shooting Tuesday night.

Pros. Atty. Ted Coxsey said preliminary investigation indicated Clayton was shot outside the Main Street Bar following an altercation inside the establishment with Darity.

Coxsey said witnesses said Darity had a pistol but he said Darity insisted that he did not shot Clayton.

Darity did not enter a plea at his arraignment Wednesday and was held in lieu of $20,000 bond.

The Arkansas Welfare Department said Clayton had been working out of the Agriculture Department's Dallas, Tex., Marketing Service office. A spokesman said he was in Arkansas to make a routine check of the state's commodity operation.

U. S. Regains Some Ground Lost in Cuba

By THOMAS J. STONE
PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—The United States has gone a long way at the conference table here in Uruguay toward winning back prestige lost on the invasion beaches of Cuba.

It has done this by offering an entire hemisphere of 200 million people a dreamed-of opportunity for a better way of life.

It is called the Alliance for Progress, a 10-year, $20-billion aid program conceived by President Kennedy.

There is one big string attached: Latin American must do its part by breaking down age-old barriers against economic and social progress. It will not be easy.

Some observers at the Inter-American Economic Conference feel that the program, although off to a flying start, may drop to the ground with a sickening thud. They point to the obstacles—corrupt administrations, lethargy, greedy landowners unwilling to relinquish their favored position, and tax evaders.

But the urgency of the challenge was underlined for many by the presence of Cuba's pro-Communist economic czar, Ernesto Guevara.

Although he lost no opportunity to take a poke at the United States, Guevara charmed fellow Latin Americans, especially the powerful Brazilians, the Bolivians, the Ecuadorians and even the Chileans.

His aim here was to demonstrate with a surprising display of warmth that Cuba wants to stay in the family of democratic Latin American nations, although Prime Minister Fidel Castro's regime has cast its economic lot with the Communist system and the Communist bloc of nations.

It was a plea for coexistence, and Guevara assured the delegates the Castro regime is not exporting revolution. But he said his government "cannot promise that our example is not followed elsewhere" and that the first condition for economic improvement in Latin America is to put "political power in the hands of the working class."

It was a warning that was not lost on many of the delegates.

Faubus to Talk to DeMolays

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval Faubus will be among the speakers at the 34th state convocation of DeMolay which opens here today. About 300 members of the Masonic-sponsored organization for boys are expected to attend the three-day meeting.

Reds Call Up 1.7 Million Youth Group

By JOHN FIEHN

BERLIN (AP)—East German Communist leaders launched a gigantic military recruiting drive today. They called on the 1.7 million members of their youth organization to volunteer for the army.

The effort to swell the ranks of the troops—now estimated by Western authorities to number 110,000—came as the Western Allies protested to the Soviet Union against the Red barricades that bar refugees and other East Germans from West Berlin.

The United States, Britain and France charged that Communist restrictions in Berlin were completely illegal and violate the city's special four-power status. They held the Soviet Union responsible for East Germany's sealing of the sector border and demanded "an end to these illegal measures."

The notes, described as identical took direct issue with the East German contention that the new barricades in Berlin mark an international boundary.

The sharp Western reaction was illustrated by an acid paragraph in France's protest:

"The French government has never agreed that any limitations can be imposed on the liberty of movement within the city. The line of demarcation between the Soviet sector and the Western sectors of Berlin is not a state frontier. The French government considers as illegal the measures which the East German authorities have just taken."

All members of the Red youth organization were called to special meetings Friday at dawn in schools, factories and collective farms to hear the appeal to volunteer. The orders were issued by Horst Schumann, 37, first secretary of the youth organization.

The young people were told that Sunday's ban on the flight of refugees to West Berlin was "a victory for peace and socialism." The appeal said "panic and confusion reign among our enemies," and "now it is necessary to secure our success and win new victories over the warmongers."

The Communist youth daily Junge Welt—Young World—carried the appeal in headlines: "The Fatherland calls! Protect the Socialist Republic!"

The East German Communist regime so far has not required compulsory military service. But young men often are put under pressure to enlist with the promise that it will help their chances for later education and advancement.

The U.S., British and French embassies in Moscow handed the Soviet Foreign Ministry notes charging that the barricades violate the postwar four power status of Berlin and the fourpower

Red Science Man Defects to the West

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—The quitting of the Soviet Union by a chemist is a rare if not the first defection by a prominent scientist from the new Soviet aristocracy.

For in the U.S.S.R. the scientist and teacher are among the aristocrats so far as better pay and better living go. A premium is put on education and high skills.

Dr. Mikhail Klatchko presumably gave up more than most Soviet citizens who have asked asylum. But personal reasons, or possible reverses in his career, have not been spelled out yet.

Dr. Klatchko's awards of the Stalin Prize and Order of Lenin indicate he stood well among the Soviet scientific hierarchy. So does his assignment to travel abroad.

But chemistry is not one of the stronger sciences in the Soviet Union, in the judgment of most Western scientists. Possibly it is not so well supported financially as mathematics, physics, astronomy, and space research in which the Russians are most active.

A high official of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, asked how scientific research is budgeted, said, "We don't always get what we ask for in each field. Sometimes we have to wait another year or so before we can plan certain things."

Unhappiness over chemistry's share of the research fund melon possibly contributed to Dr. Klatchko's defection.

our problem," Moore said. "but we don't know yet what the situation is going to be."

The attorney general and revenue department probably will have to decide how much tax Texarkana, Ark., will pay. Moore and McClerkin said they'd ask Atty. Gen. J. Frank Holt for an opinion. His ruling will amount to law unless a court rules otherwise.

Another interesting factor about the situation is that Arkansas vitally needs the extra tax dollars—whether $1.29 million or $750,000. It could be the necessary spark for getting a hoped-for state college construction program off the launching pad.

McClerkin and Moore say if it is decided that Texarkana, Ark., will have to pay 3 per cent sales tax, they will ask Paulus to include the city's tax dilemma in his special legislative session which begins next Thursday.

Then, they say, they will introduce legislation to get things evened up.

Merchants are reluctant to comment about the situation.

Officials of three of the largest Arkansas-side department stores, who asked that their names not be used, said dire consequences would result if the city had to pay the standard Arkansas sales tax.

Two of them even said merchants would begin moving across the state line into Texas.

The Texas side holds a population edge, 30,000 to 19,000, but the Arkansas side of town has the heavy end of retail sales, the Chamber of Commerce said.

One merchant pointed out that Texarkana, Ark., would lose in the long run because, he said, there would be fewer and fewer sales.

L. E. Gilliland, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, said he believed people would "walk across the street to save a penny."

McClerkin and Moore contend the Texas tax can't be considered a general sales tax because of its exemptions and therefore the Arkansas side won't be bound to a 3 per cent general tax. But the legislators acknowledge that Arkansas merchants are going to have to collect at least as much as their friends on the Texas side.

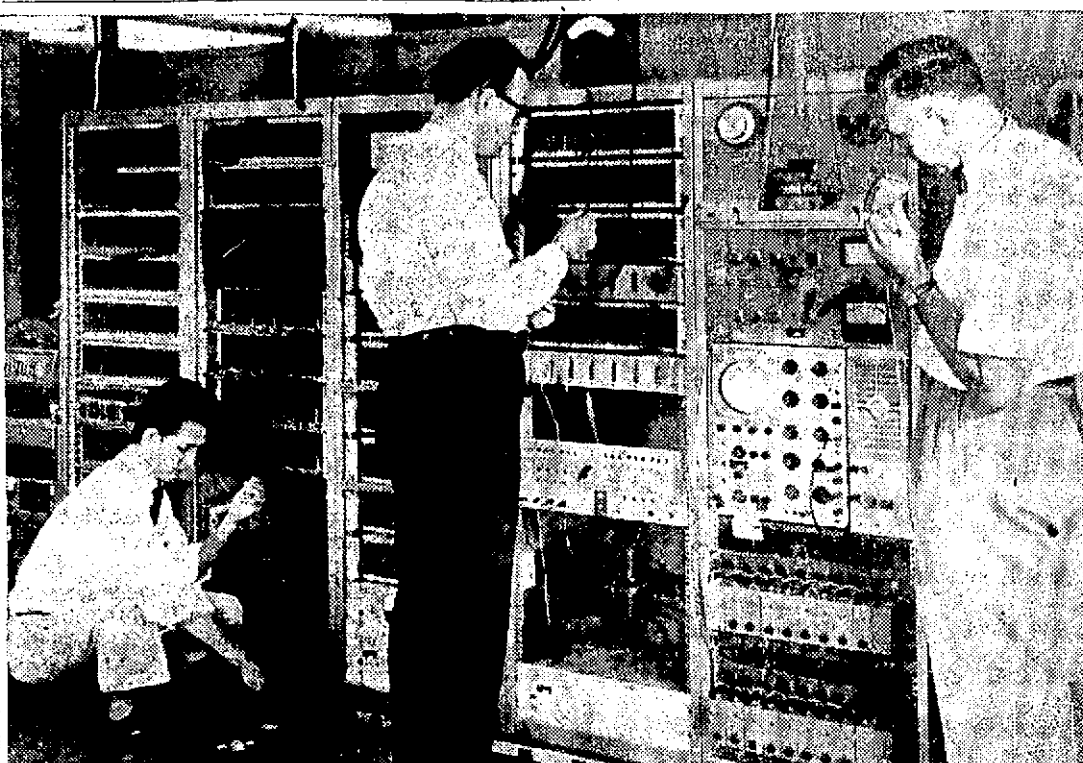

McClerkin and Moore contend things will be worked out so both sides of the city will operate on an even basis.

But how this will be done, and how much trouble will be involved, is still the unknown factor.

agreement for free movement throughout the former German capital.

The U.S., British and French commandants in West Berlin presented similar protests Tuesday to Col. Andrei I. Solovyev, the Soviet commandant. Solovyev gave no immediate reply.

The Soviet commandant had, however, rejected Wednesday a protest entered by the Western officers about two weeks ago against harassment of refugees then streaming to West Berlin at the rate of several thousand a day.

The East German Communist party paper Neues Deutschland repeated the contention that the fourpower status of Berlin—established in war and postwar agreements—"has long ceased to exist."

Foreign Aid Rebuffed, 2nd Vote Asked

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy urged the House today to reverse itself and approve long-term authorization of foreign aid loans "in this crucial hour of the nation's history."

Kennedy said Democrats had helped former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's foreign aid program, and "it is urgent that this bipartisan principle be maintained."

A coalition of House Republicans and conservative Democrats Wednesday struck at the heart of Kennedy's foreign aid program—and dealt him a severe rebuff—by slashing the long-range development loan feature from the house bill.

Helping to make the day a gloomy one for the White House, the Senate whittled more than $1 billion from the over-all program.

The House setback was tentative. The 197-185 vote to scuttle the loan plan was on a teller count without a record vote. Administration forces have at least two chances to recoup:

1. The scuttling amendment may still go to a roll call vote in the House where 55 members were unaccounted for in Wednesday's head count.
2. The bill eventually will go to conference with a Senate version more in tune with Kennedy's original plan for power to lend $8.8 billion at no or low interest to underdeveloped countries over the next five years.

In the Kennedy statement released by the White House, the President said authority to make the long-range loans "is essential to making certain that our foreign-aid program is both efficient and effective." This has been the administration position throughout this year's congressional battle over foreign aid.

He added: "When Asia and Africa are poised between economic development and chaos, when Mr. Khrushchev is probing the West for any sign that our resolve is weakening, I cannot believe that the bipartisan support always given this (foreign aid) program is at this crucial moment to be abandoned."

West Makes Protest on Barricade

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Western powers today delivered formal protests directly to the Soviet government against the refugee barricade along the East-West frontier in Berlin.

The U.S., French and British Embassies handed the notes to the Soviet Foreign Ministry in Moscow.

Contents of the notes were not made public immediately, but they were expected to contain strong protests.

Expensive Watch Puts Him in Jail

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Gerald McConnell remains in Caddo Parish Jail today on a charge of transporting a stolen $6,500 diamond and platinum watch from Los Angeles to Hot Springs, Ark. The FBI accused the 33-year-old McConnell of taking the watch to Hot Springs, knowing that it had been stolen. Officers said the watch was part of the loot taken in a $39,000 Los Angeles robbery July 4. McConnell was arrested in a restaurant here Wednesday, waived preliminary hearing and was jailed in lieu of $7,000 bond.

Big Program Launched for the Americas

By ROMAN JIMENEZ

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay

(AP)—The Inter-American Economic Conference winds up today with the final signatures—but not Cuba's—on an 8,000-word charter launching President Kennedy's $20-billion Alliance for Progress to get the jump on communism in Latin America.

In the closing hours of the conference U.S. Treasury Secretary C. Douglas Dillon and Cuban economic czar Ernesto Guevara traded bitter words early today after the United States and 19 of the 20 Latin American nations had approved the charter and a 1,000-word summary to explain the program to the Latin American public.

Guevara, after abstaining on the vote, said the conference had established the "first link for real peaceful coexistence in America."

He asserted the United States had voted for all parts of the charter and that this was an admission "that there can exist regimes which are not committed to free enterprise."

"Those governments which are against our system shall recognize the irreversibility of the Cuban revolution," Guevara declared.

Accusing Guevara of "untruths and falsehoods" to give the impression that the United States somehow recognizes the permanence of the present regime in Cuba, Dillon said: "This we do not do and never will do because to do so would be to betray the thousands of patriotic Cubans who are still waiting and struggling for the freedom of their country."

The chief of the U.S. delegation said the United States had extended the hand of friendship to the Cuban revolution but Prime Minister Fidel Castro spurned it.

The alliance plan provides for financial aid and self-help over the next 10 years to improve the lot of Latin America's 200 million citizens and reduce the region's glaring gap between poverty and wealth.

Of the $20 billion in foreign aid that is promised Latin America, more than half will come from the United States. The United States is also pledged to take the lead in soliciting the balance from its allies, as well as investments from private sources.

In the winter of 1955-56 abnormally heavy rains caused Bull Creek to flood and rampage through Humboldt Redwood State Park southeast of Eureka, Calif. In a few hours the wild stream undercut and toppled 300 major trees.

Death Claims Actress Who Began at 70

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Adeline de

Walt Reynolds, who began a successful acting career at 70, is dead at 98.

Her family said Wednesday that Mrs. Reynolds had died in her sleep Sunday. She had worked until a few months ago.

Mrs. Reynolds had said she waited for a career because she was busy rearing four children after the death of her husband, Frank. Three children survive, among them actress Mary Adams.

Mrs. Reynolds made her first movie, "Come Live with Me," with James Stewart in 1941. After her first day before the camera, Stewart asked if she were tired.

"If you had waited 70 years to do something," she said, "you wouldn't be tired."

Films in which she appeared included "Going My Way" and "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn."

Born on a farm near Vinton, Iowa, she educated herself by borrowing books from a teacher friend.

At 68, Mrs. Reynolds received a degree from the University of California at Berkeley. She majored in French, but concentrated on dramatics in her spare time.

Private services have been conducted.

Mrs. Lewis Entertains Club
Roses and caladium leaves decorated the home of Mrs. C. C. Lewis on Aug. 15 when she entertained her Tuesday Bridge Club. The two tables of members enjoyed the afternoon play with high score prize going to Mrs. Tom Wardlaw.

Mrs. Dorsey Camp won the game prize. An ice course was served for refreshments.

Hope Jaycees Meet Tuesday
The Hope Jaycees met at the Hempstead courthouse in the little courtroom on Aug. 15. Two new members were welcomed to the group, they were Mrs. Jack Renard and Mrs. Don Fuller.

The president, Mrs. Carter Russell, conducted the business meeting when plans were outlined for the coming year. At the Jaycee's Donkey Baseball Game in Legion Field Aug. 31 the Jaycees will have a concession stand. There will be a dinner meeting at the Barlow in September, a Bake Sale in October, and the group will sell Christmas cards this year.

Mrs. Wayne Bohannon and Mrs. Dean Hamilton were hostesses for the evening and served cup cakes, nuts, coffee and cold drinks.

Mrs. McCloughan Entertained
Mrs. John Gardner Jr. had a morning coffee for Mrs. Merrill McCloughan of New York City on Wednesday in the Gardner home at Oakhaven.

Greenery decorated the home. In the dining room the table was centered with ivy in a blue bowl flanked by white candles. At the coffee urn, Mrs. Harold Brents poured. Ginny Gardner also assisted in serving the 15 guests.

Out of town guests were Mrs. D. W. Hensley of Benton and Mrs. Johnny Brannan of Dallas.

Miss Judy Kaye Wright Honored
Miss Judy Kaye Wright, bride-elect, was honored with a breakfast at the Barlow Sunday, Aug. 13. Hostesses were Misses Sue Ann Smith, Sherrie Hankins and Carol Coop.

The honoree wore a blue two-piece dress and pinned a corsage of fleur d'amour at her shoulder. The hostesses presented her a gift of silver. Roses decorated the table where covers were laid for 10 guests.

Guests included Misses Cary Joy Case, Georganne Lowe, Nancy Reese, Edwina Whitman, Carolyn Yarbrough and Cecilia Cox of Fulton.

Legion Auxiliary Meets
The American Legion Auxiliary of the Leslie Huddleston Post No. 12 met at the Community Room of the First National Bank Tuesday, Aug. 15. The meeting was opened with the pledge followed by prayer by Mrs. Ben Edmiston. Mrs. Thomas Compton presided over the business meeting.

The committee chairmen were read as follows: Americanism, Mrs. Joe Jones; Child Welfare, Mrs. E. P. O'Neal; Civil Defense, Mrs. Vic Cobb; Community Service, Mrs. Jimmy Cook; Constitution and by laws, Mrs. Clyde Sexton; Finance, Mrs. W. H. Gunter; Girls State, Mrs. Joe Hankins; Junior Activities, Miss Cookie Jones;

Legislative, Mrs. Mary Hammi; Membership, Mrs. Charlie Taylor; Music, Miss Tena Pilkinton; National Security, Mrs. C. E. Weaver; Pan America, Miss Penny Franks; Past president's parley, Mrs. Cecil Weaver; Poppy, Mrs. J. M. Duffie; Publicity, Emblems, Awards and Radio, Mrs. R. D. Haynes; Rehabilitation, Mrs. D. E. Faris.

Mrs. E. P. O'Neal made her report on Child Welfare. Report on the state convention in Little Rock was given by Mrs. Cook. Mrs. Compton and Mrs. Jones.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Compton and Mrs. Cook.

Is Pre-Marital Love-Making a Barrier?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Should "going too far" be a barrier to marriage? A boy made love to me. My parents found out and forbade us seeing each other again. The boy left for New York immediately after this but said he would return in two years to marry me. Now he is back and Mom won't give her consent to our marriage. I'm 17, he is 23. Should I marry this boy whom I love so deeply and hurt Mom and Pop or say goodbye to him and be sad the rest of my life? —P.

Dear P.: If this boy really loves you he will wait until you come of age, which is only 12 short months away. At 18 you are free to make your own choice. Meanwhile by waiting, you'll be deferring to two people who've invested time, love and money in you—your parents! Pre-marital love-making takes a certain amount of the bloom off marriage, but should not be regarded as a barrier, provided you sincerely love one another.

Dear Helen: My husband has had a roving eye ever since we married. I remained the dutiful wife; bore him children, kept his home and lived up to my marriage vows. Now, our children are married and have children of their own. Foolishly, I hoped this new role of grandparent would cloak my husband in pride of family and persuade him to rest on the laurels of past conquests. He's still playing the same old record only this time it is barely cracked. A woman with whom he recently had a clandestine romance was divorced and the whole sordid affair aired in court. Does a wife have to sit back and take this all of her life? —Down-Hearted.

Dear Down-Hearted: No. Adultery is grounds for divorce in every state in the Union. Preconception is yours, if you want it. But, be sure to evaluate the situation before you take the final step. Think in terms of what is best for you. List your assets and capabilities. Plan a future without your husband.

STC says a manufacturer with five plants was able to cut transportation costs by $20,000 a year when a computer took over. An investment counseling firm bought four hours of computer time and three hours of programming service to prepare client status reports. It thereby eliminated 25 hours of sorting, 15 hours of calculating, 8 hours of computing, 5 hours of reproducing and 20 hours of clerical work.

Problems don't have to be left to the nearest center.

International Business Machines, with centers across the country, says it has sent 15,000 characters a second between widely spaced computers by using telephone cable, a Bell System microwave radio network, and IBM magnetic tape transmission units.

The big mechanical brains can work on business problem here, check it with data elsewhere and tell management about it somewhere else.

Beef Top Bargain of Food Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef regains the top spot among weekend specials offered by supermarkets and neighborhood stores this week, although prices were a few cents a pound higher than last week in almost all sections of the country.

Pork—hams, ribs ends, butts and shoulders—ran beef a close second on the list specials.

Leg of lamb is among the special in some sections.

Fish specials are shrimp, scallop, smelts and flounder.

Egg prices are in a seasonal rise as production declines because of hot weather. Advances range up to eight cents a dozen.

New arrivals continue to reach the vegetable and fruit markets.

Best vegetable buys are beets, cabbage, celery, cucumbers, eggplant, romaine lettuce, peppers, Eastern potatoes, acorn, butter-nut and yellow straight neck squash and watercress.

Good buys include broccoli, carrots, cauliflower, endive, escarole, green onions, iceberg and Big Boston lettuce, mushrooms, okra, yellow medium onions, parsley, Western russet potatoes, radishes, green squash and tomatoes.

Best buys among fruits are watermelon, cantaloupe, honeydew melons, grapes, limes, nectarines and lemons.

Nazarenes Open Revival With Battin

Rev. Buford Battin

Rev. Buford Battin of Lubbock, Texas, southwestern evangelist, opened a revival meeting at the local Church of the Nazarene on Wednesday night, and will continue through Sunday, August 27. Services are at 7:30 each evening.

The Rev. Mr. Battin has had wide experience as a minister, having served as pastor of San Antonio and Dallas; in Rosewell melons, mangoes, peaches, pears, plus and small California oranges are good buys.

Tractor Skid Covers Two Counties

CLONES, Ireland (AP) — Barney Mullen went to court Wednesday and testified that when his tractor started skidding it was in Northern Ireland but when it landed upside down in a field it was in southern Ireland.

Thus, said Barney, it is unfair to fine him for not having his tractor insured south of the border.

The incident took place last January. Barney, who lives in the northern County Fermanagh, said the skid had landed him over the border in southern County Monaghan.

Despite his protests, the southern Irish court fined him two pounds—$5.00 — for skidding into the Irish Republic without insurance for his vehicle.

Computer Is Big Help on Inventory

NEW YORK (AP)—A big New York department store is using an electronic brain to cut down on data for the boss. It tells him not how all items are moving each day, but what merchandise is moving faster than expected and what is selling more slowly than it should. That's what he really needs to know to manage stocks and promotions.

A Dayton, Ohio, doctor uses a computer service center to prepare automatically statement accounts for patients along with records for himself of all services performed, all fees, payments made, and a list of patients to be seen again next month.

Schools in Cleveland, San Francisco, Pittsburgh and Boston get from service centers a quick rundown on student registration, course scheduling, grade reporting, credit accumulation and student records. It leaves more time for teaching.

Taxpayers of an Illinois county have, thanks to an independent computer service center, itemized statement of their tax bills involving as many as 304 different taxing bodies. The statements show which ones a taxpayer contributes to and just how much of his total bill went for schools, water supply, roads, etc.

A Minneapolis company will get in 11 minutes a monthly production control computation, a process that formerly took three weeks.

These are some of the things the centers with their big machines point to when boasting they can profitably serve small as well as big enterprises.

Many service centers are run by the makers of the electronic wonders. Some are independent, buying or leasing their machines from the big makers. Most offer both the use of the machines and of programmers. These take the raw material—the facts and figures—from a company and turn it into data the computers can handle to produce the desired information.

One of the independents, Statistical Tabulating Corp., Chicago, with 14 centers from New York to Los Angeles, reports that a medium-sized insurance company which had expected to take 60 days to prepare a rate schedule for a new policy turned the problem over to STC programmers who did the job from scratch in

Hope Woman Graduates as Nurse

Jo Anna Pickett

The Kansas City General Hospital School of Nursing is one of the 10 oldest schools in Missouri. On August 14, it had its 67th Commencement. To date the school had graduated 1,257 nurses 22 of whom were men.

Among the 31 1961 graduates was Jo Anna Lowe Pickett, daughter of Thomas J. Lowe. Mrs. Pickett graduated from Yerger High School.

The 2 graduates come from 28 cities in 10 states. Their average age is 21 1/2. Two were married upon entrance and 10 married during the three years they were in the school of nursing. 80 per cent of the graduates will remain at Kansas City General Hospital as graduate staff nurses.

Death Threat No Worry to Yankee Star

NEW YORK (AP) - Luis Arroyo, the New York Yankees relief pitching ace, says he's not worried about the death threat he received in the mail.

"I'll pitch when they call on me - here or any other place," the 34-year-old left-hander said today.

Arroyo said a letter postmarked from Jersey City was delivered to his Bronx hotel with the following threat:

"I don't like Puerto Ricans. The next time you go to the mound in Yankee Stadium I'm going to shoot you through the head."

The letter was turned over to Ralph Houk, Yankee manager, who passed it along to police.

Hidden Ball Trick Fools Kansas City

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) - Kansas City clobbered Minnesota 12-7 Wednesday night, but one Athletics' player may have learned a valuable lesson.

Veteran outfielder Gene Stephens was caught in one of baseball's oldest traps - the hidden ball trick.

Stephens was on second base with one out in the ninth inning when Minnesota second baseman Billy Martin approached the bag and told Stephens he wanted to kick some dirt off the bag.

"When I put the tag on him," recalled Martin, "Stephens was

Baron Gets 100 RBI for Third Year

By VERNON BUTLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Stan Palys, the big outfielder termed The Monster by Birmingham fans, has crashed the 100 barrier in runs batted in for the third time in his 12-year baseball career, and that is a sign he should capture his third Southern Association batting title.

Palys had 112 RBIs in 1957 at Nashville and won the batting race with a .350 average. Last year he drove in 116 for the Barons and again won the batting crown by hitting .370. His other seasons of organized ball have resulted in no 100-plus RBI years and no batting championships.

Big Stan drove in three runs for the pace setting Barons last night, upping his total to 101 as he became the first Dixie slugger to pass the 100 mark. Birmingham outgassed Shreveport 10-6 and padded its lead to 2 1/2 games over the Chattanooga Lookouts, who dropped an 8-4 decision to Atlanta.

Nashville trounced Macon 12-0 behind John Davolio's four-hitter and Little Rock got sharp relief pitching from Chuck Daniel in a 6-2 verdict over the tailend Mobile Bears.

Birmingham rapped 13 hits off four Shreveport pitchers and put the game away with five runs in the fourth inning. Birmingham wiped out a 4-3 sport advantage with the five-run eruption in the fourth.

A three-run homer by Mike Brumley and Al Ferrara's two-run single were highlights of Atlanta's six-run assault on Chattanooga starter Gerry Kettle in the first two innings. Chattanooga scored three runs in the second inning on key hits by Norm Gigon and Gerry Reimer.

Daniel limited Mobile to five hits in eight innings for Little Rock after starter Pat Gillick developed a sore arm. The brilliant relief effort squared Daniel's season record at 11-11. Billy Reynolds walloped his second homer in two nights for the Travelers, who have swept the first three games of their series with Mobile.

Left-hander Davolio got an eight-run cushion in the fourth inning when his Vol mates assaulted Charlie Rabe and Hal Griggs for that many runs to break a scoreless deadlock. Joe Christian collected four hits for Nashville, four of them doubles.

North Dakota Proud of Son Roger Maris

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Senate was in full debate on foreign aid when it was interrupted for "an important announcement."

The announcement came from Sen. Milton R. Young, R-N.D., who in proud tones Wednesday advised his colleagues: "Roger Maris, a North Dakota farm-raised boy, hit two more home runs today. We expect him to break the world's record by quite a few."

Young sat down, beaming. The Senate went back to work on foreign aid.

Maris, a New York Yankee, with 48 homers, is running ahead of Babe Ruth's record home run pace.

California Girl Faces Missourian

SEATTLE (AP) - May Lowell of Hayward, Calif., who had to rally on the second nine for a victory in Wednesday's quarterfinals, faced the Missouri Women's champion Judy Torluemke today in the semi final round of the National Junior Girls' Golf Championship.

The other 18 hole match pitted Margaret Martin of St. Clairsville Ohio, against Jeannie Thompson of Tulsa, Okla. Jeannie, a high school senior, is 16; the others are 17.

Cracking par by two strokes with a 34 on the first nine of her match Wednesday, Miss Lowell erased Jeannie Butler of Harlingen, Tex., 2 and 1. In the afternoon, however, she was 1 down to Kathryn Farrer of Decatur, Ala., after nine holes.

From there on she was only one over par, winning on the 16th, 3 and 2.

Starlet Has Qualities of Famed Pair

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) - Supposing a girl reminds producers of a combination Liz Taylor-Grace Kelly. Is that good?

Dolores Faith shakes her lovely head.

"You might take a look at her and disagree. In fact, you'll probably take a second look. Most people do."

"I suppose it's only natural to be compared," says Dolores. "People need a point of reference. But I still want to make something on my own."

She's making it. The doll has been jumping up the scale from bits to a lead in "Wild Harvest," taken from Stephen Longstreet's novel. But she admitted that resemblance has sometimes held her back.

"There was the time I tried out for a contract at Warner Bros.," she recalled. "They told me I was a combination of Elizabeth Taylor and Grace Kelly and they wouldn't know what to do with me."

Still, she shows remarkable composure for a girl of 19. You get a notion why when you view her childhood.

She was born Dolores Faith Hedges in Cleveland, Ohio. Her father was of Hungarian descent, and her mother was Italian, which is quite a combination. At 4, Dolores was stricken totally deaf.

"My eardrums burst while I was playing one day," she said. "The doctors couldn't really account for it. For six months I could hear absolutely nothing. Then I could hear a little as the eardrums began to heal. But my hearing never returned completely until I was 9."

"At first I had a private teacher. Then I was able to go to public school, sitting in the front seat so I could hear the teacher. I suppose those years had something to do with my wanting to be an actress. I withdrew into myself. It's not easy for a child to be different from the other kids; they called me 'dummy' and made fun of me."

The years of deafness also left her with a lisp. She rid herself of it only a year ago with such exercises as talking with a pencil in her teeth.

She got her acting start as many newcomers do nowadays—as witness on the court shows (divorce, youth, traffic, etc.) which abound on local TV. Now she's on her way and looks hopefully to the time when newcomers will be called "another Dolores Faith."

Maris Close to Cracking Ruth's Mark

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds, knocked down and brushed off by the Los Angeles Dodgers as contenders in that National League pennant race, are back on top again after giving the Dodgers a public flogging that may have topped anything since the witch trials of Salem.

Right in the Dodgers' own ball yard, and in front of the largest (72,140) night crowd in NL history, the Reds made off with a sweep of the three-game show-down by drubbing Los Angeles 6-2 and 4-0 Wednesday night.

The Dodgers who have been firing knockdown pitches at the Reds all season and making pointed talk of the pennant threat from San Francisco and Milwaukee, hadn't suffered a double-header shutout in 26 years. That was when they were a Brooklyn bunch, back on July 28, 1935, and Carl Hubbell and Clyde (Slick) Castleman pitched shutouts for the New York Giants.

Right-hander Bob Purkey, allowing just four hits in the first game, and left hander Jim O'Toole, giving up just two hits in the nightcap, paired for the Reds' pitching job on the Dodgers, who now have lost four in a row for the first time this year.

San Francisco, in third place 7½ games behind, defeated St. Louis 4-3, Milwaukee, nine games back in fourth, beat Pittsburgh 2-1 as Warren Spahn won No. 301. The Philadelphia Phils went down to their 19th consecutive defeat, tying the modern NL record, in a 9-5 loss to the Chicago Cubs.

In the American League, Roger Maris hit two home runs, for a total of 48, as the New York Yankees defeated Chicago's White Sox 5-4 and moved three games ahead of Detroit. The second-place Tigers lost 8-2 to Baltimore, Cleveland defeated Boston 6 to 4, Washington beat the Los Angeles Angels 3-2, and Kansas City walloped Minnesota 12-7.

The Reds, back on top after a 10-day stay in second, made it in a breeze as their top Dodger killers, Frank Robinson and Gene Freese, went to work at the plate while Purkey (14-7) and O'Toole (12-9) extended Los Angeles' shut-out slump through 26 innings.

Robinson hit his 34th home run of the season, sixth against the Dodgers, in the opener and drove in four runs in the doubleheader for a season total of 24 RBI against Los Angeles. Freese then drove in four runs in the second game with a pair of home runs. He's hit eight against the Dodgers while the Reds have piled up a 10-6 edge in the season series.

Two-run homers by Orlando Cepeda and Felipe Alou did it for the Giants against Ray Sadecki (10-6). Jack Sanford (9-6) cracked the Cards on seven hits and had a shutout until the eighth inning.

Spahn (13-12), the top winner among living major league pitchers, gave up 10 hits but had it in the clutch against the Pirates as the Braves won their sixth in a row on a home run by Frank Thomas and an RBI double by Ed Mathews off Bob Friend (12-14).

A wild pitch scored the clincher for the Cubs in a three-run sixth inning that made Don Cardwell (10-10) the winning pitcher. Chris Short (4-9) was the loser for the Phils, who tied the losing strings run up by Boston in 1906 and Cincinnati in 1914.

Hog Attack Better, Coach Broyles Says

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — "We could have a better offensive team than last year," University of Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said here Wednesday.

Broyles' remark came at a luncheon of the Cotton Bowl Advisory Committees at which Southwest Conference coaches made brief comments about prospects of their football teams.

"We have two experienced quarterbacks and have Paul Dudley off the ineligible list," Broyles said. "He (Dudley) can run as fast as Lance Alworth."

Most optimistic comment came from Jess Nely, Rice coach, who said his team's only weakness would be at end, where he has only two veterans, and at center, where he has none.

"I know of no team that can be picked as the favorite," Texas Coach Darrell Royal said. "It will be that close." Royal said his team would be "weak in the line" but would have adequate depth in the backfield.

SMU's Bill Meek said his squad is improved at fullback, quarterback and line backer — where it needed help last year.

Texas Tech's J. T. King said his team, rated toward the bottom, would have more backfield depth than at any time since he has been coach there.

Abe Martin, coach at Texas Christian, told the group: "I'd like to come over here and play each Jan. 1. I'm more interested in that than any other activity."

As for TCU's prospects, Martin said: "I think we'll have a good team but all 10 of our opponents look better than us on paper."

"Our defensive should be better, and I feel that our offense will be improved," said Jim Myers of Texas A.M.

Doing the speaking for Baylor was assistant athletic director Bill Henderson, who represented coach John Bridgers. "I'd like to put John on the spot and say we'd be down here Jan. 1," Henderson said. "But I don't think we will. We'll have one fine offensive team but other than at center and one guard position reserve strength falls off sharply."

Legion Regional Tourney Begins

MEMPHIS (AP) — The Panama Canal Zone squad from Balboa and Walnut Ridge, Ark., collide today in the opening game of the American Legion's south central regional baseball tournament.

Other opening round games pit Monroe, La., against Denton, Tex. and Memphis against Jackson, Miss.

Two losses means elimination. The winner of the tournament moves on to the national finals which open at Hastings, Neb., Aug. 24.

When Wahoo Sam Crawford won the American League home-run title in 1908, he did it with a total of seven. And among the other dead hall champs, Nap Lajoie became the AL's first home run king in 1901 with 13.

Now Roger Maris, gunning for gold, glory and Babe Ruth's 60, suddenly has spurred his pursuit with seven home runs—matching Crawford's season total—in six consecutive games, and needs just 13 more—Lajoie's title total—to crack the Babe's long elusive record of 1927.

With his pair of two-run shots off southpaw Billy Pierce as the New York Yankees defeated the Chicago White Sox 5-4 Wednesday on the 13th anniversary of Ruth's death, Maris now has hit 48 and has moved 15 games ahead of the Babe's record pace.

While the Yankees have played 119 games, one was a tie and doesn't count toward the 154-game limit on an unchallenged home-run record set by Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick. The ruling was made to equalize the AL's present 162-game schedule with the 154-game schedule that was in use until this year's expansion to 10 teams.

That means Maris has 36 games (decisions) in which to hit his record-busting 13. That averages out to one every 2.8 games.

As for the almost forgotten pennant race, New York moved three games ahead of second-place Detroit when the Tigers lost 8-2 to Baltimore. Cleveland defeated Boston 6-4, Washington beat Los Angeles 3-2, and Kansas City thumped Minnesota 12-7.

In the National League, Cincinnati shot past Los Angeles into a one game lead by sweeping a two-night pair from the Dodgers 6-0 and 8-0. San Francisco defeated St. Louis 4-3, Milwaukee got past Pittsburgh 2-1, and the Chicago Cubs handed the Philadelphia Phils their 19th consecutive loss, 9-5, tying the modern NL record.

Despite Maris' slugging, it was by a hit batter with the bases loaded in the ninth that the Yankees beat the White Sox. After Jim Landis' second home run had tied it for the Sox in the sixth, the winning run was forced home when Warren Hacker plunked Bob Cerv on the hand with a pitch.

That gave the victory to Ralph Terry (9-1) and beat Turk Lown (6-5), both working in relief.

Jackie Brandt, Brooks Robinson and Jim Gentile backed Milt Pappas (9-6) with home runs as the young Baltimore right-hander stopped the Tigers on two hits.

All three homers were off Jim Bunning (14-9), who hadn't thrown a gopher ball in 50 2-3 innings.

A's Rumored Switching to a Texas City

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Owner Charles Finley of the Athletics, said to be discouraged by his team's poor showing in his first American League season, may be considering a transfer of the franchise to Dallas, the Kansas City Star said Wednesday night.

Finley could not be reached for comment.

Star sports editor Ernest Mehl said there are rumors that Finley has made some contacts in Dallas. The report was discounted in Kansas City and Dallas.

The A's have discussed this discreetly among themselves and the owner is said to have asked one of them for his opinion of such a move," said Mehl.

The A's operate under a Municipal stadium lease that gives the owner the option to move if ticket sale fails to reach $850,000 for a season. Kansas City, 10th in the standings, have drawn only 470,000.

Before he could move the A's, Finley would have to win league permission.

Doug Sanders Coming on as Pro Golfer

WASHINGTON (AP) — With Gary Player and Arnold Palmer sitting this one out, Doug Sanders could strengthen his bid to become top man among golf's money winners with a victory in the $35,000 Indian Spring Open starting today in nearby Maryland.

Sanders, from Cedartown, Ga., could vault from third into second place in the dollar derby by picking up the tourney's $5,300 top prize.

This would raise his 1961 earnings to $22,950 and enable him to pass Palmer, who has headed in $52,793. Player tops the list with $55,694.

Blocking Sanders' path, however, were 139 other golfers including such former Indian Spring winners of this 72-hole event as Julius Boros, Dow Finsterwald, Paul Harney and Doug Ford.

Miss Hard Is Furious Over Court Slight

MANCHESTER, Mas. (AP) — Darlene Hard, 25-year-old blonde tennis star from Long Beach, Calif., lashed out at Wightman Cup selectors for leaving her off the U.S. team that faces Great Britain in Chicago Saturday and Sunday.

In an interview with Bud Collins of the Boston Herald Wednesday night, Darlene called the omission a "low blow."

"It was political string pulling," she charged, "and really stung me after the way I practically killed myself in the Wightman matches last year."

She was responsible for three points in a 4-3 loss to the Britons. She also charged that "maybe Mrs. (Margaret) Du Pont, the captain, tried to keep me off so that she could play doubles instead of me."

In Chicago, Mrs. Du Pont said the Wightman selectors decided against asking Darlene because she had been seriously ill and "had not demonstrated that she was fit again for such a strenuous match."

Stricken with hepatitis in May, Miss Hard is now playing her first tournament — the Essex County (N.J.) Club Invitation — in three months.

MEMPHIS (Aentucky's) Frank Beard held a slim lead today as 84 amateurs teed up for the second qualifying round in the annual Colonial Invitational golf tournament.

The 22-year-old state champion from Louisville used only 22 putts on his flashy 5-under-par 33-32-65 over the 34-36-70 Colonial Country Club course Wednesday.

Narrowly missing a tie for the top was Dale Morey of Morganton, N.C., a former Walker Cup player, who fired a 32-34-66. David Dixon, a top Memphis entry, was 32-35-67.

The second round winds up $55,694.

Blocking Sanders' path, however, were 139 other golfers including such former Indian Spring winners of this 72-hole event as Julius Boros, Dow Finsterwald, Paul Harney and Doug Ford.

Mex. Tennis Team Given Nod on U. S.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The same Mexican tennis team that almost upset the American Davis Cup squad last year is given a good chance to win the American zone finals, which start Friday.

Observers watching the Mexican players practice here since Tuesday say they appear to have a fine edge. But they quickly point out the American team, slightly erratic earlier in the week, is much sharper now.

At noon today American Capt. David Freed and his Mexican counterpart, Francisco (Panchito) Contreras, hold the official draw to decide opponents in the singles play on the clay courts at the Cleveland Skating Club.

Their choices were not disclosed, but indications were Bernard (Tut) Bartzzen, a master craftsman on clay, and Chuck McKinley would be used in the singles Friday and Sunday for the Americans. Contreras hinted he'll counter with Mario Llamas and Rafael Osuna in the doubles.

The Americans probably will count on Dennis Ralston and McKinley in Saturday's doubles. Ralston, nursing a sore throat, may be replaced by Jon Douglas. Osuna and Antonio Palafox may handle the doubles' assignments for Mexico.

A Mexican tennis team never has defeated the United States, and only last year was the outcome ever close. The Americans beat Mexico, 3-2.

qualifying play, with the 29 low scores winning a place in the championship flight. Match play opens Friday.

Jackie Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio, is defending champion and rated as the favorite. But the field was studded with strong challengers.

Four of them were among those to break par on the first round. Ed Brantley of Chattanooga, the Tennessee champion, fired a 68 to tie Louisiana champion Bert Burdick, the LSU flash. And Ed Hopkins of Abilene, the Texas lister, tied with Sid Soloman III of St. Louis at 69.

Three men were automatically qualified. They were Nicklaus, whose previous wins include the National Amateur; Dick Sikes of Springdale, Ark., the National Public Links champion; and Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, a Walker Cup player.

3 Powers to File Protest With Russia

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, Britain and France are drafting a direct protest to Moscow against East Germany's closing of the border between East and West Berlin to cut off the flight of refugees from communism.

Western diplomats said the protest, following formal complaints made in Berlin Tuesday, will go to the Kremlin in the very near future, on a government-to-government level.

Representatives of the three Western powers and West Germany were to meet at the State Department today to work on the draft and to continue efforts to develop other measures which may be taken because of the refugee blockade.

Progress on development of the countermeasures, reported to include economic sanctions against East Germany, was slower than had been expected when the work started Monday.

Although a wide range of countermeasures were under consideration, top U.S. officials said no strong steps will be taken at this time because the blockade applies to the Communist East rather than to West Berlin.

President Kennedy and Secretary of State Dean Rusk arranged a breakfast conference at the White House early today and though the purpose was not announced, it was assumed they intended to review the Berlin crisis.

The Allied diplomatic planning group was to meet with Asst. Secretary of State Foy D. Kohler later in the morning. This same planning committee met late on Tuesday with Kohler and West German Ambassador Wilhelm G. Grewe said afterward that "there will be measures" to deal with the situation created by the crackdown on refugees.

The Berlin situation was discussed at length by several top administration policy makers in a two-day foreign policy briefing conference for about 700 radio and newspaper editors which ended at the State Department Tuesday.

The list of speakers included Rusk and Kennedy, but the President spoke "off the record," and nothing any of the officials said could be attributed to them under the rules of the conference.

From various statements made at the conference, however, it is apparent that U.S. officials regard the flight of thousands of East Germans from Communist rule and the closing of the East-West Berlin border as a black eye for Soviet Communist prestige and propaganda all over the world. The significance of this development is judged to be twofold:

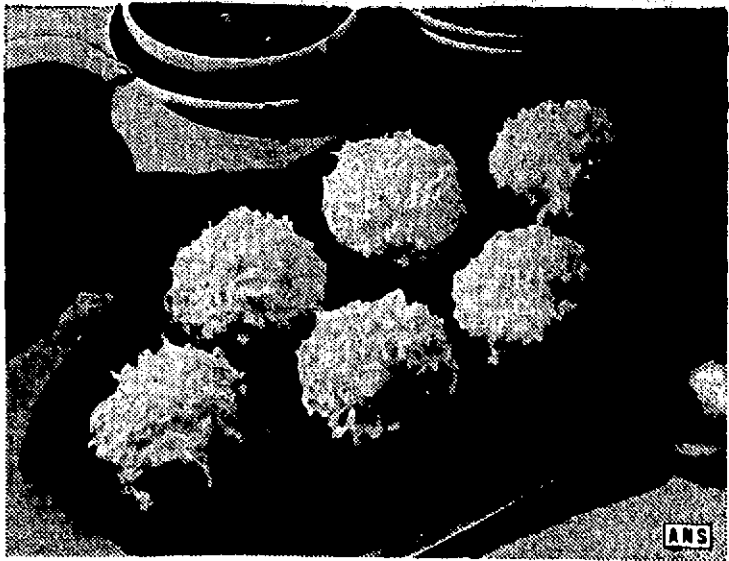

1. It should make easier the task of the United States in putting across to the leaders and peoples of the newly independent countries in Africa and Asia the contention that communism has been a failure in East Germany and that it is not the "wave of the future."

2. At the same time, the whole affair of the refugees may dangerously complicate the problem of trying to negotiate with Soviet Premier Khrushchev a peaceful solution for the broader Berlin crisis in which the refugee problem stands as a single dramatic incident.

Khrushchev's aim in trying to get the Western powers out of West Berlin and give that city a new status is believed here to be the stabilization of the Communist position in East Germany and generally in Eastern Europe.

SUSPENSE

A Short Short Story

FOOD FOR MIDAS

By LESTER ARNO

It was an ideal residence for Willie.

Nothing like living close to your work.

Willie's shack was on the edge of the city dump. It was built of things less thrifty citizens had thrown away. Considering that it was constructed from odds and ends, it was surprisingly snug.

It was less surprisingly filthy. Tin cans were scattered everywhere, in stacks and in piles.

Not that it mattered to Willie. Willie had one purpose in life. He was dedicated to scavenging an old turning his finds into money.

He spent none of the money. He hoarded it. He hid it. Put it away and forgot it.

This was the contents of the tin cans. He had long since used up all the hiding places and now they were better shelter all over the place. He didn't even try to pile them up because they fell down in heaps. It was too much of an effort to stack them neatly.

Willie, himself, never remembered how it had all started. He only knew that he must find things other people had thrown away, sell the things for a few pennies, convert the pennies into dollars, convert the single dollars into 10 bills, put the 10 bills into tin canisters and continue the whole process, again and again.

This morning was like every other morning for Willie. He got up, put some water on top of the old coffee grounds, heated the evil tasting mixture and drank it. Then he put on several pairs of pants, three overcoats, an old stocking cap and set off for work.

He pushed the old broken down baby buggy with the four wheels of assorted sizes a scant 200 yards up to the top of the dump and began appraising the newest deposit of goods.

Four bottles at two cents apiece. Part of an old quilt, burned at one end.

Three pieces of scrap iron. One old rubber tire.

One battered and broken suitcase. (Later he would rip off the brass fittings.)

One umbrella, its ribs intact.

Willie wheeled his treasures to his shack.

After several hours' further search, Willie wheeled his treasures to his shack. He spent another hour sorting them. Then he wheeled them down to Sam's Junkyard where he sold the lot for 13 cents.

His next stop was at the back door of Wilson's Bakery. He stood there until one of the bakers noticed him. The baker handed him a bag of stale bread and buns.

Willie returned to his shack and reheated the coffee. Then he dipped the stale bread into it and had his lunch.

Having dined, he decided to nap. He crawled into a corner, put the burned quilt on top of the old blankets and he covered himself with the lot.

Willie promptly fell asleep.

Willie was not found for several days. Then a dump truck driver, who knew Willie by sight and hadn't seen the old fellow for almost a week, decided to learn if something was wrong.

The driver investigated and discovered Willie where he had fallen asleep.

The young interne turned to the resident doctor at the County Hospital. "Malnutrition?"

The resident nodded his head. "Chronic," he said.

"But the newspapers said that he had thousands and thousands of dollars hidden in tin cans in his shack."

"Food for Midas," replied the resident.

"I beg your pardon?"

"A classical allusion," said the resident. "Remember the fable about King Midas? Everything he touched turned to gold."

Hot Springs Firm Signs With Labor

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Employees of Norris Dispensers, Inc., are working under a new contract today. A two-year pact signed Tuesday by the company and the United Steelworkers Union provides a 13-cent hourly wage increase this year and an 18-cent boost next year. The company employs 64 persons in the manufacture of coin-operated milk vending machines.

Senators Split on Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. W. Fulbright voted in favor of an amendment the Senate adopted to the foreign aid bill Tuesday, while Sen. John L. McClellan voted against it. The amendment, which passed on a roll call vote of 52-44, would give Congress authority to veto individual loans above $5 million under the long-range development loan program.

Nuclear Test Resumption Is Opposed

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is reported to have decided against any resumption of nuclear testing this year, regardless of whether the Russians demonstrate at Geneva they want no foolproof agreement.

The President's position, as outlined to congressional leaders, is that the United States should do nothing to prejudice the case it expects to make in the United Nations that the West is ready to accept a self-enforcing ban while the Russians insist on an inspection veto.

Kennedy is sending his chief negotiator, Arthur H. Dean, back to Geneva next week to find out if the Soviet Union is still sticking to its troika demand for unanimous three-power inspection control. If they are, he said, Dean will come home quickly.

There is little, if any, hope within the administration that Moscow will change its position. Accordingly, the plan is to dramatize this last-chance rejection when the UN General Assembly meets in September.

The UN timetable usually keeps it in session until December. Kennedy is represented as reluctant to announce any resumption of tests while the international organization remains in session.

There is the additional factor in this reported decision that it would take a couple of months to prepare a test shot if a presidential go-ahead is given.

The general opinion within the administration is that the United States would lose little advantage by waiting a few more months before it moves into the field of perfecting types of smaller-scale nuclear weapons.

This is contrary to the way Republican congressional leaders view the matter.

Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and House Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana called at a news conference Tuesday for resumption of testing. They said stalled negotiations with the Russians should not be permitted to "sland-bag the nation's safety."

Halleck and Dirksen said they have "quite authentic information" that the Russians have been testing all along. This view seems not to be shared by Kennedy administration leaders.

111 Reserve Officers to Face Call Up

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Affairs Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—While the Army is advising 111 Reserve units, none of them of division size, that they may be called to duty as part of the build-up of U. S. Conventional Forces for meeting any trouble over Berlin.

Most of them probably will be support-type outfits, although there may be some combat units.

This alert plan, similar to one announced recently by the Air Force for 71 Air National Guard and Reserve units, followed closely other moves in manpower expansion by the Air Force and Navy.

The Air Force announced Tuesday that it is aiming at adding about 28,000 men to its strength by asking volunteers to continue on duty after reaching normal active duty termination, and by holding others in service if there aren't enough volunteers. There seemed to be no high hope that the full 28,000 requirement would be met by volunteers.

The Navy announced Monday that it will hold on duty 26,800 men whose service otherwise would end before next June 30.

Formal announcement of the Army plan apparently was arranged for an afternoon news conference today by Army Secretary Elvis J. Stahr. He also may discuss more precisely how the Army will use the manpower increase and other authority granted by Congress in line with recommendations made by the Defense Department.

So far the Army has made no announcement concerning call-up of either National Guard or Reserve units. Initially, its attention has been turned primarily to preparing for conversion of three training divisions into combat outfits, to bring total combat divisional strength to 17.

The guess was that if the Army decided it needed to tap Reserve sources for quickly supplying trained units with specially needed skills, it would look for service and support outfits.

These categories normally include such specialized outfits as parachute riggers for airborne forces, medical units, signal, engineer, maintenance and artillery.

Summer Is Chicken Barbecue Season

One food that's practically synonymous with summer is chicken, barbecue style. Ever on the lookout for something new to please the family, the thoughtful homemaker will welcome this simple and delectable variation for barbecued chicken.

Coated with specially milled corn flake crumbs and baked to a golden crispness, Barbecue Crusty Chicken adds up to a pleasurable dish. Accompany chicken with assorted garden vegetable relishes, French bread and for dessert, peach ice cream.

Barbecued Crusty Chicken
4 cups Kellogg's Corn Flakes or 1 cup packaged Kellogg's Corn Flake Crumbs
1 cut-up frying chicken (2 1/2-3 pounds)
2/3 cup barbecue sauce

If using Corn Flakes, crush into fine crumbs. Wash chicken pieces and dry thoroughly. Dip chicken pieces in barbecue sauce, then roll in Corn Flake crumbs until well-coated. Place skin-side up in shallow baking pan lined with aluminum foil; do not crowd pieces. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) about 1 hour or until tender. Do not cover pan or turn chicken while cooking.

Yield: 4-5 servings.

More Grief Ahead for Foreign Aid

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy's five-year foreign development loan program, altered but intact, today runs into another Senate effort to change it.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., wants to add an anti-usury amendment to the program.

Williams asked the Senate to adopt a proposal under which money made available by the United States—at rates as low as one per cent, and even interest-free—could not be reloaned at rates higher than eight per cent.

The Senate turned to consideration of Williams' proposal after an attempt to cut Kennedy's request for borrowing authority for the five-year loan program from $8.8 billion to $7.3 billion lost on a 46-46 tie vote.

This vote was still subject to a motion to reconsider. But the Senate's Democratic leaders said they were confident they would pick up additional support if there is another vote on the amendment.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., floor manager of the bill, for example, was absent from the Chamber when the tie vote was taken.

The amendment, sponsored by Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, would have slashed the development loan requests by $287 million this year and by $300 million for each of the succeeding four years.

But the Senate did vote, 52 to

No Place Like Foam

"Foam Sweet Foam" might be the theme of this beautiful young bathing cutie who finds herself right at home in the sparkling blue waters of the hotel Algiers pool on Miami Beach. She's obviously all two of the most sumptuous and satisfying meals you've ever tasted each day.

So many people picture the Florida paradise city as expensive and unattainable. The opposite is the truth. Nowhere in the world can such brilliant attractions, accommodations and recreational facilities be duplicated in price. The Algiers, for example, provides award-winning food, full sized orchestra plus an all-star show every night, swimming in the pool or the ocean, full recreational programs all day, indoor games and outdoor sports, host and hostesses for making people feel at home, romantic nights under the famous Moon Over Miami and many other inducements at prices that are within every vacationer's budget. They even have trained counselors during the months when school is out which is a big reason why families are taking their summer vacations way down South.

Our mat-adorable mermaid is also much relaxed in the knowledge that nowhere in America does the sun shine more consistently, Miami Beach, nevertheless, is most delightful during the spring and summer as it maintains an average temperature near 75 degrees, with nature's own air-conditioning provided by friendly trade winds.

Adding to her pleasurable vacation is the moderate rate that makes hotels like the Algiers so extremely popular at this time of the year. "Summer rates" prevail from April 23rd through December 15th, which means you can occupy a de luxe, fully air-conditioned room on the Atlantic Ocean and 26th Street for as little as $8.50 per person per day. The price INCLUDES 44, to give Congress a veto power over any loan over $5 million.

Offered by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader, and accepted by Fulbright, the amendment would give four congressional committees a 30-day advance look at any proposed loan above that amount.

Church Group Feels War Is Certain

DALTON, Ga. (AP) — The 82-year-old moderator of the Church of God of the Union Assembly Tuesday night said his church expects war and many congregations are moving here to wait for it to come.

"We're looking for war," said the Rev. C. T. Pratt, "world war—and our people are moving here. If we go (die), we go together."

He said he was to ill at the moment to discuss the matter in detail but said that congregations of the church have already moved to this area from Middlesboro, Ky., and from communities in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

The Rev. Mr. Pratt said others are coming to a village in this north Georgia area where the church has its headquarters.

Officials of the church declined to estimate the number of persons who have moved to the area. They also said figures were not immediately available on the size of the membership in the church—which has been estimated at several thousand.

The Church of God of the Union Assembly owns most of the village, several farms in this area and publishes a weekly newspaper, "The Southerner." The paper recently said the group now operates some 25 to 30 businesses in the area.

The only congregation which the Rev. Mr. Pratt singled out as about to move was one at Luttrell, Tenn., near Knoxville, which is headed by Bishop Johnny Burnett.

What These Kids Do Get Into...

ALTON, Ill. (AP) — Virginia Coons was still trying to determine today how her son Michael Edward, 5, got that big bathtub faucet stuck in his mouth.

Its removal necessitated the use of police, firemen and a doctor. It also caused her to go into shock.

"I just don't know how he did it," she said. "I saw him put his mouth around it once and told him not to do it again."

"I turned around for a moment and when I turned back around there it was."

She couldn't get it out and neither could police. Firemen arrived and cut it off the tub with a hacksaw.

Faucet in mouth, Mike was taken to St. John's Hospital where a doctor had better luck.

2 Anti-Game Bills Given Clearance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee has approved two bills and rejected a third designed to help the government crackdown on big time gambling.

Previously the Senate passed all three measures.

One bill approved Tuesday would make it a federal offense to use telephone, telegraph or other forms of interstate wire communications for gambling purposes. It is aimed primarily at bookmakers and would exempt legitimate news reporting of sports events by the press, radio and television. Violators could be fined $10,000 and imprisoned for two years.

The second bill would make it a federal offense to ship gambling equipment and supplies in interstate commerce, except into states where their use is legal. Violators could be fined $10,000 and imprisoned for five years.

The committee killed a third Senate bill that would have prohibited obstruction of any lawful federal investigation or interference with informants. The bill carried penalties of up to $5,000 and five years imprisonment.

The bills are part of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's package of anti-underworld legislation.

Turkey Toppers

Here's one of the tastiest ways to use the extras from your weekend turkey treat. Turkey Topper sandwiches are so chock full of good eating they're a meal in themselves. It's a make-ahead kind of meal, too. You can prepare the patties, slice the onions, tomatoes, turkey meat and cheese early in the day, then wrap each food in moisture-vapor proof wrap and store in the refrigerator until cooking time.

The patty base, made from turkey stuffing, introduces an exciting new sandwich idea for summer menus. Try it with the teen crowd, or for light summer suppers for the whole family.

Turkey Toppers

3 cups turkey stuffing
6 thin slices of onion
6 tomato slices
6 slices cooked turkey meat
6 slices of Cheddar cheese

Use your favorite stuffing recipe or packaged stuffing mix, following directions on package. Form six patties of stuffing about 2½ by ½ inches. Place on baking sheet and bake in a 400° F (hot) oven for 10 to 15 minutes, or until thoroughly heated. On the hot patty place in layers—slices of onion, tomato, turkey and cheese. Return to hot oven and bake until cheese melts, about 15 minutes. Top with a sprig of parsley and serve with cranberry sauce. Makes 6 servings.

East German Area One Big Prison Camp

By CARL HARTMAN

BERLIN (AP)—East Germany's Communist regime turned its territory into a virtual prison camp today by extending its crackdown on travel to the West to its entire border—far beyond the confines of Berlin.

In divided Berlin itself, West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt told an estimated 200,000 cheering Germans he has sent a personal letter to President Kennedy that Berlin expects "more than words, it expects political action."

Angered by Western delays in reacting to the Communist clampdown on the flow of refugees, the demonstrators carried placards saying "Enough protests, let's act," and "Quiet please, a lot of people are still asleep."

Soviet Col. Anetel I. Solov'yev, commander in East Berlin and highest official to receive official Western protests so far, ignored the clamor over the barricades of barbed wire, tanks and guns that has stopped the flow of East German refugees to the West.

He has not answered the protest Tuesday by the Western military commanders. But replying to another protest of nearly two weeks ago against harassment of East Berlin commuters, he said he could not take it seriously.

British, U.S. and French diplomats in Washington were reported having difficulty thrashing out any unified course of action except to make a protest on a higher level to Moscow.

The temper of the West Berliner was such that Brandt told the rally: "Whatever you do, don't shoot at your countrymen."

But he shouted: "Paper protests are not enough to express our screaming protest!"

The Russians, he said, have "loosened the leash a little of their Dog (East Germany party boss Walter) Ulbricht and allowed him to send tanks into Berlin. The tracks of those tanks churned up the agreements on four-power status of Berlin."

As he shouted, banners waved. Some of them said "Rather dead than Red." "Paper protests won't stop tanks."

Thunderous applause greeted Brandt's announcement that Gen. Bruce C. Clarke, U.S. Army commander in chief in Europe, visited Berlin today. Clarke conferred with Brandt and was met by one of the East German water guns that guard the border.

Warning that Moscow was using Berlin in an effort to split the Allies, Brandt declared: "If the Communists are not stopped at the Brandenburg Gate they will not be stopped at the Rhine."

As he spoke, West Berlin police closed roads leading to the Brandenburg Gate to head off any steam-up demonstrators who might decide to head for it.

The East German Communists cut down on already limited travel by their own citizens to West Germany without making any announcement about it.

They thus extended the travel bans in effect in Berlin since Sunday when they first shut off all travel of East Berliners to West Berlin and then allowed West Berlin motorists into East Berlin only by special permit.

Crops Good Generally in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas crops are making good progress, the Crop Reporting Service said today.

The report said locally heavy rains over the weekend helped crops in central, northwest and southwest Arkansas, but that some northeast and east central counties still need moisture.

Cotton continues to progress well, with generally favorable weather, the soybean crop is in good condition in all but a few counties and rice is making very good progress, the report said.

Ben-Gurion's Party Wins Israel Vote

By ERIC GOTTGETREU

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion's Socialist Mafai party appeared today to have lost three or four seats in Parliament but remained the country's dominant party. It will be the mainstay of the next government.

Ben-Gurion, now 74, is expected to form another coalition Cabinet made up of the Mafai, the new Liberal party, and possibly religious and left-wing Labor parties to give him a majority in the 120-member Knesset (Parliament).

Mafai losses were attributed as much to high taxes and the cost of living as to Ben-Gurion's fight to shut out former Defense Minister Pinhas Lavon from succeeding him when the perennial prime minister finally retires. Ben-Gurion resigned last January and forced the election as a result of the so-called Lavon Affair.

With half the votes in Tuesday's nationwide election counted, these were the totals so far, and the likely distribution of Knesset seats: Mafai 140,465—43 or 44 seats, down 4 or 3; Liberals 50,740—17 seats, up 3; Herut, extreme right nationalist, 45,455—16 seats, down 1; National Religious Front 40,607—1 seat, down; Mafam, leftist labor, 37,384—10 seats, up 1; Communists, 4 seats, up 1.

The remainder of the seats would be divided among seven minor parties that were registering about 10 per cent of the vote.

The Mafai percentage of the vote dropped from 38.2 in 1959 to 33.9, while the Liberals increased from 0.7 to 3.0. The latter was formed by a merger of the Progressives and the slightly more conservative General Zionist party.

The Lavon Affair was rarely mentioned during the campaign, and Lavon kept silent. He was forced out of the Cabinet in 1955 and accused of ordering a military venture that failed. Ben-Gurion resigned when a Cabinet committee exonerated the younger man. Details of the military venture have been kept under censorship.

Congress to Take Up Redistricting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Edwin E. Willis, D-La., said Tuesday his House Judiciary Subcommittee will conduct hearings on bills dealing with the expansion of House membership and congressional redistricting.

Willis said no date was set for the start of the hearings. Some 30 bills dealing with membership expansion and redistricting have been introduced in the House.

5 of 9 NYC School Board Members Out

NEW YORK (AP)—Three more members of the city's Board of Education decide to whether to resign at the pleasure of Mayor Robert F. Wagner. Five of the nine members already have agreed to step down if he demands. Another is in Europe.

The entire board faces ouster when the legislature convenes in special session at Albany next Monday, called by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller to consider the city's school problems.

The board, beset by charges of construction fraud and inefficiency, has been asked by Wagner to resign. He said he was acting on recommendation of a special board of inquiry which he set up.

The mayor said the five who offered to resign would continue in office at his discretion while he set up the machinery to appoint a new board.

He also declared that the city administration would fight in the courts any attempt by the legislature to abolish any Board of Education established by the city.

The five who agreed to waive their rights to serve out their terms were the board president, Charles H. Silver, former Police Commissioner Francis W. H. Adams; Andrew G. Clauson Jr.; the Rev. Gardner C. Taylor, and Charles J. Bensley.

Charles F. Rank, Vito F. Lanza and Cornelius J. Walsh asked Wagner for more time to consider. The board member vacationing in Europe is Cecile Ruth Sands. All nine members were appointed by Wagner. They serve staggered seven year terms and receive no pay.

Wagner, a Democrat, is seeking re-election. Rockefeller is a Republican.

leased printer circuit between East and West Germany as well as West Berlin, broken by the East Germans two days ago without explanation, were restored today.

But telephone calls from West Germany and West Berlin still were not being accepted in East Germany.

Homemade Jam Is Best

KEEP AHEAD OF THE ROBINS . . . and get your share of luscious ripe cherries for the "best home-made jam you ever ate!" Follow the simple directions given here . . . and for a stronger cherry flavor, add a few crushed cherry pits during the cooking, or, if you prefer, add ¼ teaspoon of almond extract just before you pour the jam into the sterilized glasses.

SWEET CHERRY JAM

Yield: about 3 medium glasses (4½ lbs. jam)
4 cups prepared fruit (about 5 cups (2½ lbs.)
3 lbs. ripe sweet cherries) granulated sugar,
¼ cup lemon juice (2 medium lemons) 1 box Sure-Jell fruit pectin

Step 1: Stem and pit about 3 pounds fully ripe sweet cherries. Chop fine or grind and measure 4 cups into a very large (8 quart) saucepan. Squeeze the juice from 3 medium-sized lemons. Measure ¼ cup into saucepan with cherries.

Step 2: Measure sugar and set aside. Add fruit pectin to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly and to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with ½ inch hot paraffin.

Berlin Mayor Sharp With JFK

BERLIN (AP)—Mayor Willy Brandt of West Berlin announced today he has sent a letter to President Kennedy telling him "Berlin expects more than words, it expects political action."

State Textbooks Given Inspection

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Textbook Selecting Committee will wind up a two-day meeting today with recommendations to the state Board of Education on a series of public school texts. The board has never vetoed the selections of the committee. About $940,000 will be spent on free textbooks for use in Arkansas public schools in the 1961-62 school year. H. T. Steele, director of the Division of Institutional materials, he said.

Mock Battle of Planes and Missiles

NEWBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—Enemy bombers and intercontinental ballistic missiles theoretically were over 10 million square miles of North America Tuesday night in a six-hour test of electronic facilities.

The test was staged by the North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) to train personnel manning detection and defense direction facilities along seaward approaches to the United States and Canada.

Some 6,250 officers and men at about 800 installations took part in the exercise. It was devised to represent the problems which would be involved in an attack by 549 intercontinental missiles and submarine launched pro-

Home Contract Loans Requested

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas asked for 3,284 house construction loans insured by the Federal Housing Administration in the first seven months of 1961. Charles R. Watson, state FHA director, said this compared with 3,249 for the first seven months of last year.

jeetiles, plus 420 bombers.

But the entire operation was merely for the testing of electronic equipment and the men in charge of it. No actual planes or missiles were involved.

NORAD headquarters is at Stewart Air Force Base here.

Caution Is West Policy on Berlin

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP) — The present mood of the Western powers is to take a slow, cautious approach to the Berlin problem in the hope the crisis won't get worse, diplomatic sources reported today.

"We're not ready to climb on to that escalator yet," one Western official in Berlin was quoted as saying in explanation of the reluctance to adopt any major reprisals for the Communist blockade in the middle of Berlin.

Climbing on the escalator he meant a series of reprisals and counter-reprisals that could lead to either the East or the West backing down—or war.

The West replies to the Communist ban against refugees and commuters in Berlin by cutting off trade with East Germany; East Germany, with Soviet backing, cuts West Berlin's lifelines to West Germany; the West is left with the choice of trying an airlift again or fighting its way through on the ground.

A British Foreign Office spokesman in London firmly denied suggestions printed in some West German and French newspapers that the British are weakening in the resolve to resist Communist pressure. He said the British, Americans and French are as determined as ever to protect their rights in West Berlin and the freedom of the more than two million West Berliners.

The Western allies have a pretty clear idea of the type of retaliatory measures they could take in the political, military and diplomatic fields to counter Communist moves, diplomatic sources explained.

But the timing of such actions is a difficult problem.

For example, should retaliation steps be started now before the Communist East Germans have made any move to pinch off the Western access routes to West Berlin?

Several considerations apply here:

1. One argument is that the East German moves in Berlin are aimed at the Western powers at all. The East Germans, in fact, may be trying to tidy up their own position by halting the flight of their citizens to the West in advance of expected top-level negotiations on Germany and Berlin.

2. Another argument is that the East Germans have started a chain of events aimed ultimately at prying the Allied garrisons out of West Berlin. If this argument is correct, is this the time for the Western powers to strike back, or would it be better to wait until their own rights were directly challenged?

3. Finally, the morale of the West Berliners must be considered. Some diplomats say the West must take some measure to reassure them. Many West Berliners are angered by the cautious Western policy.

W. MacFarlane, Golf Great, Dies

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — One of the golfing giants of the Golden Twenties, Willie MacFarlane, is dead at 72.

The Scottish-born professional, who beat Bobby Jones in a double round playoff for the 1925 National Open title, died at his home Tuesday of a heart attack. His widow survives.

CEILING PAINTING is a cinch with a new acrylic emulsion paint which is thickened chemically to the consistency of heavy cream. This makes it virtually dripless. Also it needs no stirring before use. Here, before turning to the roller for fast results, the young home decorator "cuts in" along the line where ceiling and wall meet. Because this unusual new paint is extra thick, she can use the can lid as a palette to make this initial ceiling-painting step easier. Called "Lucite" wall paint, it's the quick, easy, neat way to paint walls and ceilings and is the result of the paint chemists' efforts to remove the fuss, mess, and bother from home painting projects. It comes in two whites (one especially formulated for ceilings) and 19 colors.

Barricade Protested by West

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Western powers were expected today to send a strong protest directly to the Soviet government against the refugee barricade along the East-West frontier in Berlin.

But President Kennedy and other top Allied leaders faced mounting pressure for action as well as words to counter the Communist crackdown on travel inside the divided city.

West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt disclosed Wednesday he had sent a personal letter to Kennedy that "Berlin expects more than words, it expects political action."

The Western powers have already protested against the border closing through their military commandants in West Berlin to the Soviet Commandant in the eastern section of the city.

But Western representatives meeting here decided earlier this week that the United States, Britain and France should also put directly before the Soviet government their accusation that the barricading of the Communist zone border with West Berlin violates allied agreements going back to the end of World War II.

State Department officials said Wednesday they expected action on the note within 24 hours, evidently meaning it would shortly be delivered in Moscow.

U.S. officials reportedly decided against using far-reaching economic measures such as broad-scale cutbacks in East-West trade because such steps have been planned for possible Western countermeasures to actions which the Communists might take later this year against the supply lines to West Berlin.

Also, U.S. and British officials are understood to be reluctant to take steps which might provoke retaliatory actions from the Soviet Union or East Germany at this time.

Beef Up by Army Takes 150,000

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army today was embarked on a program that could add as many as 150,000 men to its present strength by next summer.

Secretary of the Army Elvis J. Stahr Jr. says the extent of mobilization will be governed, to some degree, by what happens in the Berlin crisis and elsewhere in the months ahead.

He told a news conference Wednesday that, among other things, the Army has alerted 113 units of the National Guard and Reserve, with a total of 23,626 men, that they have been designated "priority units" for possible call to active duty.

Stahr said the Army expects to reach an authorized total by next June 30 of 1,008,000.

"We still may not and, indeed, we hope that the international situation will be such that we don't have to call these reserve units and individual reinforcements from the mobilization pool," he added.

However, there was more certainty about the future for other soldiers. The Army intends to extend the duty tour of about 84,000 enlisted men who until now had been scheduled to complete their enlistments between Oct. 1 and next June 30. Instead, they will be ordered to stay on for periods up to four months. In that time, the Army expects it will have received enough men from training centers to replace the 84,000.

Officers have their plans cut out for them, too. Those who now are serving what they thought would be six-month active-duty tours will be liable for up to one year of additional duty. ROTC officers not now on duty face up to two years of active service.

Beginning Oct. 1, overseas duty will be longer, extended six

Sawmill Worker Killed at Strong

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — Vernon L. Kennedy, 58, a sawmill worker, was killed near Strong Tuesday when he jumped into a circular saw as he sought to escape from a log which fell from a stack at the C. H. Nolen Lumber Co. Union County Coroner John Pinson said Kennedy bled to death.

Months for those stationed in Japan and Germany, three months for Korea.

The draft will continue high—25,000 men in the September quota, at least 20,000 in October. This is in addition to volunteers for first enlistment.

From these various sources—holding men in service, encouraging others to remain voluntarily, more volunteers, draft, possible call-ups of units and individuals in reserve—the Army aims at maintaining its authorized strength by next summer. Its manpower as of now totals about 858,000.

Pair Find New Rocket Technique

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Two high school students, one of them an Arkansan, who are attending a summer science institute at Louisiana State University have designed and built an apparatus using principles which may eventually be applied in new rocket propulsion techniques.

LSU professors said Tuesday the device is a "plasma gun" which ionizes hydrogen.

It was built by George Porter of Mountain Home, Ark., and Herbert Defriez, of Washington, D.C.

The two took part in the third annual summer training science program for highly-gifted secondary school students which ended last Friday. The school was supported by a $9,000 grant from the National Science Foundation. The term "plasma gun" is applied to the apparatus because of its use of plasma, or ionized gas in concentrated form.

Dr. Paul E. Koenig, assistant professor of chemistry, said the project is highly unusual because research work of the type is on a level with that usually performed by graduate research students. Both Porter and Defriez will be high school seniors this fall.

The plasma gun directs a beam of hydrogen toward a target and is the heart of the apparatus. It was designed originally by Porter and Defriez from materials obtained from the LSU chemistry and physics departments. The youths fabricated some of the parts and built an oscillator which powers the apparatus.

Dr. Koenig said a plasma gun of greater power than the one used in the project may theoretically be used to accelerate a beam of protons for rocket propulsion.

The project was part of the three-phase program in which students of the institute took part. Dr. Dorr C. Ralph, LSU profes-

Nashville Votes Industrial Bonds

NASHVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A $250,000 industrial bond issue was approved 404-267 by Nashville voters Tuesday. The bond money will be used to construct a plant for Howard Manufacturing Co., a subsidiary of Hoytex, Inc., of New York, which will employ up to 350 persons in the manufacture of robes.

Tractor Drowns Man in Ditch

WALNUT RIDGE, Ark. (AP) — Russell Kelley, 25, of Walnut Ridge drowned Tuesday when he was pinned in two feet of water after his tractor overturned in a water-filled ditch on a rural road five miles north of here.

A sor of physics, served as consultant for the project.

The youths estimated they used about $2,500 worth of apparatus. Dr. Koenig said few high schools are able to provide the equipment

Teen-Time Picnic Treats

All summer long, the vacationing high-school set crams every hour of the day chock-full of activities. These busy teens on the go want informal lunches easy to fix yet different and tasty too—just usually ready to go at a moment's notice.

The next time your teenager dashes in with last-minute picnic plans, suggest "Bunwiches Italiano"—they're easy to make and far different from the ordinary school-day sandwich. Assorted relishes, fruit, baked goods you have on hand, and a can of shoe-string potatoes top off the menu. Simply wrap each item separately in the new, clear economy sandwich wrap, and your busy teen is off for another happy time.

- *Bunwiches Italiano: Cucumber sticks, Celery, Pickles, Shredding Potatoes, Brownies, Milk in Vacuum Bottle
- *Bunwiches Italiano: 1/4 cup tomato sauce, 1/4 cup coarsely shredded process American Cheese, 1/4 cup finely minced hard salami or drained canned tuna or salmon, 1 tablespoon finely minced onion, Hamburger buns, Vienna or poppy seed rolls, Butter or margarine

Combine first five ingredients; mix. Makes enough for two sandwiches. Split buns or rolls in half, and spread cut surfaces with softened butter or margarine. Spread bottom half with filling. Close sandwiches, and wrap individually in new lunchbox wrap.
